

HORECA Show

The 27th edition of HORECA, the annual business meeting place for the foodservice and hospitality industries in Lebanon and the MENA region, is returning to Seaside Arena, Beirut, on 25-28 April, 2023.

The four-day event supports the hospitality and food service business ecosystems, allowing professionals to network and connect. It also promotes new opportunities and helps businesses thrive. In addition, HORECA celebrates the rising talents in hospitality and foodservice, and fosters innovation across the industry through its various activities: competitions, talks, roundtable discussions and networking functions.

Interested companies can access more information on <https://www.horecashow.com/> and also will be able to benefit from special prices with MEA and with official hotels during this event.

HORECA would like to invite buyers¹ who are interested in Lebanese products to attend and connect with local industrialists.

Selected distributors will be invited on full board basis.
