

Documents required for birth registration

Occurring in the State of New South Wales

Children of Lebanese descent, who are born in NSW, can be registered as Lebanese via diplomatic correspondence with the relative authorities in Lebanon. Applicants should provide the following:

Form A1

- Go to site: <http://www.lebconsyd.org.au/index2.htm>, click "Consular Services", Click "Forms", Click "A1 (Civil Status & passport Application Forms)", Print and complete, ensure your consular file number is clearly stated.

Document of Proof of marriage registration

- Family extract of civil status records بيان قيد عائلي (new or old, original plus 2 photocopies) issued by the applicants relative census office in Lebanon – OR – Parents individual extract of civil status records بيان قيد إفرادي (new or old , originals plus 2 photocopies) issued by the applicants relative census office in Lebanon – OR – Parents Lebanese identification documents which could prove that their marriage registration has already been executed in their relative census office (new or old, original plus 2 photocopies).
- If the Mother of the child to be registered is Non-Lebanese, then an executed Lebanese marriage certificate is required (original plus 2 photocopies). Lebanese marriage certificates are issued by the applicant's relative census office in Lebanon.

Full extract of the local Birth Certificate

- Original full extract of the birth certificate with One Photocopy. The photocopy of the certificate is retained by the Consulate-General and the original is returned to the applicant after the verification of its content. Certificates are issued by the NSW Registry Office located at:

35 Regent Street
CHIPPENDALE NSW 2008
Phone: 1300 655 236

Applicants requesting Consular registration certificates have to submit self-addressed envelopes bearing the appropriate postal stamps for later postage.

Consular Fees:

Free of charge